DAS DL-250

Arming & Disarming

1. How To Disarm
   - Enter a valid user code.
   - The red ARMED light will turn off, and the tone will stop.
2. How To Arm
   - The green ready light must be on, ensure all protected areas are secure.
   - Enter a valid code.
   - The red ARMED light will come on.
   - Leave the protected area.
3. What To Do If Code Does Not Work
   - If code is not accepted press the [#] key to clear.
   - Re-enter a valid code.
   - The red ALARM light will go off for 'disarming', on for 'arming'.
4. How To Night Arm
   - Ensure that zones to be bypass have been programmed for "AUTOMATIC BYPASS".
   - Enter a valid user code and do not trip the entry/delay zone or other secure zones.
   - The red ARMED light will come on.
   - After the delay time is up the keypad will give one long beep with the bypassed zones illuminated on the keypad and the PARTIAL light will come on.
   - A final long beep will occur about 30 seconds after.
5. How To Fully Arm
   - Enter a valid user code to disarm the alarm.
   - Re-enter code and leave premises.

Keypad Functions

6. How To View Memory
   - Press [0] key. Wait 5 seconds.
   - Lights will flash where alarm occurred and PARTIAL light also.
7. How To Exit Memory
   - Lights will turn off after a few seconds.
   - Keypad will return to normal status.
8. How To Bypass Zones
   - To bypass press [∗] + zones to bypass + [∗].
   - Zone lights will stay lit while bypassed.
   - Arm system, ARMED light will be lit.
9. How To Clear Bypasses
   - 1: enter valid code to disarm, all bypassed zones will disable, or
   - 2: press [∗] + zones to disable + [∗].
10. How To View Trouble
    - AC               Light off indicates no power.  Blinks when battery is low.
    - ARMED           Flashes for alarm memory if alarm was activated during arming cycle.
    - READY Flashing means communicator trouble.
    - ZONES Flashing means unsecured, steady means bypassed
11. How To Clear Trouble
    - Fix indicated problems listed above.
12. How To Exit From Trouble
    - Once troubles are fixed keypad will return to normal settings.
13. How To Recognise That The Chime Function Is On
    - Keypad will give a long beep when zone is tripped.
    - Zone light will flash while beeping.
14. How To Turn On Chime
    - Press pre-programmed number for chime. Wait 5 seconds.
    - Keypad will give a long beep.  Note there is no visible display to show chime active or inactive.
15. How To Turn Off Chime
    - Press pre-programmed number for chime. Wait 5 seconds.
    - Keypad will give a long beep.
16. How To Send Keypad Panic Alarms

- Press down [*] + [#] keys together for a PANIC alarm.
- Press down [1] + [3] keys together for a FIRE alarm.

17. How To Reset Smoke Detectors
- Press the [#] key.
- This will drop power to latching smoke detectors.

User Codes

18. How To Add User Codes
- 7 codes are available, master-#1, user codes-#2-7.
- You must know master code to enter other codes.
- To add user code press [∗] [code number 2-7] [#], [master code], [∗] [code number 2-7] [#], [new user code], [∗] [code number 2-7] [#].

19. How To Delete User Codes
- To delete a code press [∗] [code number 2-7] [#], [master code], [∗] [code number 2-7] [#], [∗]-[∗]-[∗]-[∗], [∗] [code number 2-7] [#].

20. How To Overwrite User Codes
- To overwrite a code press [∗] [code number 2-7] [#], [master code], [∗] [code number 2-7] [#], [new code over top of old one] [∗] [#].